95. HALE (A.). The Adventures of John Smith in Malaya: 1600–1605. 335 pp., 8vo, original wrappers, uncut (shaken). Leyden, 1905.
A singular narrative. John Smith was born in Cornwall, 1573, and is described as an English pioneer, though serving under the Dutch flag. Capt. John Smith, of Virginia fame, returned to England, after various adventures, in 1605, and the unreliability of his personal memoirs leaves one in doubt whether or not he was in Malaya prior to 1605. The narrative abounds in stirring sketches of Malayan life.
